

St John's Marlborough is proud to present a series of public science lectures in conjunction with its award winning British Science Week.

Each inspirational lecture will focus on a different area of science enabling you to attend one or all four.

Tuesday 17 March

6.30pm

The International Rosetta mission to land on a comet

Dr Nigel Wright
EarthCARE Programme Manager
Thales Alenia Space UK Ltd

Wednesday 18 March

6.30pm

The Magic of Oxygen

Dr Mike Batham and Dr Rob James
Chemistry Department
Open University

Thursday 19 March

6.30pm

Animals Behaving Badly

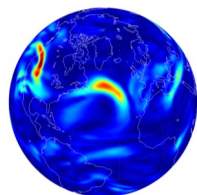

Dr Michael Leach
Wildlife author, speaker and Photographer

Saturday 21 March

11.00am

Climate Science from a Climate Scientist

Dr Paul Williams
Royal Society Research Fellow
Reading University

The Climate Science Lecture is free of charge as part of the Marlborough Science Fair, places must be booked in advance.

Lectures are suitable for all members of the community.
Adult : £3.50 Concessions : £2.50

TICKETSOURCE

TICKETSOURCE

Bookings can be made via Ticket Source
<https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/stjohnstheatreonthehill>

Or contact Sally Bere 01672-519558 or sbere@stjohns.wilts.sch.uk for further details.

*This lecture series is sponsored by Carter Jonas
The Property People*

Carter Jonas